

David Conwill, President

David Conwill is the President and Co-Owner of Redwood Living, Inc. He is an innovator and ambassador of Redwood's brand, which encompasses single-story, open floor plan apartment homes, each built with a 2- car private attached garage. David co-manages Redwood Living, focusing on acquisition, development, and financing strategies to grow the business.

From 2003-2009, David directed various real estate endeavors during his tenure with Pride One Construction, including the development of Redwood Neighborhoods. Beginning In 2009, despite recessionary headwinds, David dedicated his time, skills, and optimism to establish a comprehensive and ambitious growth plan within Redwood Living, encompassing both geographic expansion and corporate infrastructure. He devised and implemented financial and capitalization strategies, carefully crafting deal structures benefitting all stakeholders. David also has closely managed, from architectural design to engineering, the continuous improvement of the single-story product.

David was named a 2017 winner of Ernst & Young's Entrepreneur of the Year Award for Northeast Ohio.

Moving forward, David will continue to drive the implementation of Redwood Living's strategic business model, identifying innovative ways to drive the scalability and programmatic growth of Redwood Neighborhoods across existing and new geographic regions. He will continue to lead the company's objective of giving residents what they want and deserve, as demographics and living needs continue to change, with the goal of creating Redwood Neighborhoods throughout the United States.

David is passionate about community involvement and giving back is a top priority. He participates in a host of non-profits and serves on the board of the Northern Ohio Chapter of the Association of Builders and Contractors. David earned his bachelor's degree in Business Management from the University of Akron. Most importantly, David loves spending time with his wife and identical twin boys. In his free time, he enjoys swimming, basketball, fantasy football, politics, and spending time with family and friends.
